

THE KUSKOKWIM CORPORATION
CLASS "B" (CHILD'S) STOCK
INFORMATION, INSTRUCTIONS, AND APPLICATIONS

BACKGROUND

At the 1994 Annual Meeting of Kuskokwim Corporation, Shareholders authorized Kuskokwim to enroll up to 2,000 eligible applicants for Class "B" stock. The official Terms and conditions for issuing and receiving Class "B" stock are set forth in TKC's Articles of incorporation and board resolution. These control if there is any conflict With this explanation. These shares will be issued in the order of applications received.

ELIGIBILITY

Class "B" Settlement Common Stock will be made available without charge to individuals Who, upon application to the Corporation, are determined to be:

- A Native or descendant of a Native as defined by ANCSA 1, and
- Born after December 18, 1971; and
- The child, by blood or an adoption, of an original TKC enrollee; or of a Class "B" shareholder or person eligible to be a Class "B" shareholder.

DIVIDENDS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

The Class "B" stock will receive the same dividends and distributions from TKC as Class "A" Stock. There will be no payments for past dividends or distributions.

SHARES TO BE ISSUED

A total of 100 shares will be issued to each eligible applicant upon approval.

1

The terms "Native" and descendant of a Native" are both defined in ANCSA. Generally a "Native" means a citizen of the United States who is a person of one-fourth degree or more Alaska Indian, Eskimo, or Aleut blood, or combination thereof.

"Descendant of a Native" means the lineal descendant of a Native or in certain cases a persons adopted by a Native or descendent of a Native.

TERMS, CONDITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

Class “B” stock will have the same ANCSA restrictions as the Class “A” stock. For example, the stock cannot be sold, pledged, assigned or taken away by creditors. Like Class “A” stock, Class “B” stock will not have preemptive rights to purchase additional stock in TKC.

Acceptance of Class “B” stock constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions by the shareholder and their custodian and such future conditions, if any, as the TKC Board of Directors may by resolution approve:

- The Class “B” stock shall have a right to vote.
- The Class “B” stock shall be life estate stock which means it only lasts as long as the shareholder owning the stock is alive. After the death of that shareholder the stock is cancelled without compensation to the heirs.
- The Class “B” stock, inchoate rights thereto, and the right to receive dividends and distributions may not be sold, pledged, assigned in present or future, or otherwise transferred, except as other-wise allowed under ANCSA.
- Class “B” stock will be cancelled by TKC if it is later determined that the recipient was not eligible to receive the stock.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPLICATION

You will be notified by mail when the application(s) from your household has been received. This Receipt IS NOT a guarantee of eligibility to receive Class “B” stock. How soon you get this Notice will depend on the volume of applications received. If you do not have this receipt within Forty five (45) days from the date you mailed in your application, please contact our Shareholder Relations Department.
