TITLE

DATE

This permit is subject to all terms, conditions, and stipulations listed below:

1. Permit expires on December 31st of the year it is issued. It does not continue from year to year unless renewed by TKC. Permits may be renewed at TKC's sole option.
2. Commercial use of campsite is prohibited; campsite uses are restricted to personal use and enjoyment of applicant and his/ her immediate family; applicant must be at least 18 years old.
3. Campsite size is limited to a parcel 20,000 square feet with dimensions not to exceed 100 feet (along all water frontage) by 200 feet.
4. TKC shareholders must pay a required application fee of $25 and , thereafter no fee for each annual permit renewal.
5. Permit holder agrees not to use or allow the campsite to be used for any improper, immoral, unlawful, objectionable or offensive purpose to permit any nuisance or waste on the campsite.
6. Permit holder agrees to accept the campsite "as is" in its present condition. TKC makes no warranty with regard to its safety, fitness or suitability for the permitted uses.
7. Permit holder agrees to save and hold TKC harmless from any and all claims for personal injury and death or property damage, arising out of the permit holder's occupancy or use of the campsite. Permit holder agrees to indemnify TKC against any and all such claims.
8. Permit holder agrees any improvements made on the campsite are done at his/her sole expense and risk. Upon the expiration of the permit and TKC's specific written request, permit holder agrees to remove his/her improvements from the campsite and to reasonably restore the camp to its previous condition. This includes treating and covering outhouse pits.

The Kuskokwim Corporation

9. The permit holder agrees that TKC has the right of access to enter onto and inspect the campsite and the right to permit any other activity or use of the campsite which does not unreasonably interfere with uses allowed under this permit.
10. Permit holder agrees that he/ she does not and shall not claim at any time any interest or estate of any kind whatsoever in the campsite or surrounding lands by virtue of this permit or his/her occupancy or use of the campsite.
11. This permit is the property of TKC. The permit is a license to use only the surface estate of the campsite as allowed by this permit. The permit is non-transferable; it cannot be leased, subleased, or assigned by permit holder.
12. TKC retains the right to deny or limit any permit application or request for renewal at its sole discretion without or with stated cause.
13. TKC reserves the right to revoke or terminate permit at any time if the permit holder fails to comply with each and all of the permit conditions and stipulations. TKC's failure to enforce any condition or stipulation shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach of any other condition or stipulation.
14. Use stipulations and requirements to be performed by the permit holder:
 - a. All trash, refuse, and garbage shall be removed from campsite. No burying.
 - b. All fires must be contained in stoves or fire pits and monitored by permit holder to prevent wild fires.
 - c. Only dead or fallen trees may be used for firewood. This permit allows no cutting of live timber. Clearing at site is to be minimal. Limbs, slash, and other debris shall be disposed of properly to minimize any fire danger or insect infestations.
 - d. Permit holder shall protect all survey monuments, bearing or witness trees, markers or other survey signs against damage, destruction, or obliteration. Any damaged or obliterated survey markers shall be re-established by permit holder in accordance with accepted survey practices of the State of Alaska
 - e. Permit holder will abide by Alaska DEC requirement for safe water, sanitation facilities, and storage of potential pollutants (such as fuel). Outhouses or privies must be located at least 100 feet from the nearest river, stream, slough, or lake.
